LOCOMOTIVES ARE OBSOLETE. Electric Motors Take Their Place on New York L Road.

The New York Herald of today says: Standing end to end on sidings of the Manhattan elevated railroad at Mott Haven are three hundred abandoned locomotives, which have been supplanted by electricity in their functions on the 2d and 3d avenue lines. Steam has gradually been abandoned on those lines until the entire East Side system, from the Battery to Bronx Park, is now operated by electricity.

There are also three hundred cars for which the Manhattan Company no lenger has use. In a few months the rolling stock of the West Side lines will also be on the market, and the company will then have for sale locomotives which represent an original outlay of $2,004,000. The 300 cars cost $300,000. Through a broker in railway supplies, the old rolling stock has been offered for sale. Nearly all the locomotives are in good run-ning order, and each should be able to haul a load of 110 tons up a 2 per cent grade. They are of standard gauge, and, being of light weight, might be especially useful for contract and plantation work or suburban railroads. About forty of the locomotives have already been sold at prices ranging from $2,200 to $6,000 each, and it is expected that a market for many others will be found in foreign countries, as there is always a considerable demand for light engines for export.

PREACHER'S CHILDREN SAME AS OTHERS.

The wife of a prominent divine tried the food cure with her little daughter. She says: "I feel sure that our experience with Grape-Nuts food would be useful to many mothers. Our little daughter, eight years old, was subject to bowel trouble which we did not then understand and which the doctor's prescriptions failed to cure.

We had been using different cereals for breakfast and finally becoming discouraged I said; 'I will try an experiment; I will discard all other cereals and use only Grape-Nuts for breakfast. The three children all like it better than anything else and are so fond of it that I hardly let them have all they want. In a short time I could see an improvement in the bowel trouble.

"We began using Grape-Nuts five months ago and now not only has the bowel trouble disap-peared, but the child has grown so plump and well -in fact was never so fleshy before-that all our friends notice and remark about it. We think we have an ideal breakfast which consists of whole wheat bread with butter. Postum Cereal Coffee and Grape-Nuts. This is all we care for, and I think would be hard to find many families so invariably healthy as is ours." Name given by the Pos-

TOTAL OF FIFTY-THREE

THE LINE-UP IN POLICE COURT DOCK TODAY.

First to Respond Didn't Know What Happened - Christian Could Do as He Pleased,

"We've got a total of fifty-three in the cell room this morning," Bailiff Hughes told Policeman Flynn at the Police Court, when the latter went back to superintend the feeding of those behind the bars.

"Yes, in spite of the fact that there was no parade yesterday a large number of people took a large amount of wet goods aboard, and as a result became boisterous and were locked up," the officer said. William A. Thomas, colored, the first to appear before Judge Bundy, was charged with disorderly conduct.

"Are you guilty or not guilty?" Clerk Harper asked. "Don't remember anything that happened," Thomas said. The policeman who arrested Thomas did not forget, and he told the court that the man was drunk and as eep in Garfield Park southeast last night. "When I told him to go home he indulged in profanity," the officer explained. "Do you want to say anything?" Balliff

Hughes asked Thomas.
"What's the use of talking?" I don't remember anything." Thomas replied. member anything." Thomas replied.

"Five dollars," the court remarked. Unless the fine is paid Thomas will not be at liberty for fifteen days.

"I'm guilty." was what James McGill, colored, said when arraigned on a charge of misconduct while on 14th street northwest last night. west last night. The fine was $5, with fifteen days on the farm as the equivalent. "Me, Too," Said Benjamin.

"Guess I'm guilty, too," sa'd Benjamin Hicks, when arraigned on a similar charge. A policeman said it was an ordinary case of disorder, and the court made an assessment of $5, with half a month in the workhouse unless the fine is paid. "I'm from Alabama, and can do as I please," Robert Christian, colored, told Policeman Jackson when he was arrested on Water street southwest, last night, for indulging in profanity.

When he apeared in court this morning Robert told the court that his home was in North Carolina, and that he had been in Washington three days.

"I didn't do anything," he told his honor. Judge Bundy failed to agree with Robert, and gave him one month on the farm. Charles Hunt, attired in the khakl unl-form of a Fort Myer trooper, was in the toils. He had been arrested by Policeman Payne because he was engaged in a disturbance while in Southeast Washington last night.

"I was out with a couple of friends last night, and they beat me because I wouldn't lend them a dollar," Hunt stated. He said he was just getting up from the pavement when he was arrested.

Attorney Moss, who appeared as Hunt's legal adviser, asked the court to be easy on his client, because he was to leave for the Philippines shortly, where he would doubtless do good service for his country.
"I'm going to take your personal bonds," Judge Bundy told Hunt, "and now that you have had a good time, try and behave ourself.

"All good citizens are interested in the uniform you wear, as well as in the men who wear them, and Uncle Sam's fighting force should not be brought into disgrace," his honor remarked to Hunt as he left the

"Guilty of Having Knife."

"Guilty of having the knife," Elijah Mockabee, colored, said after he was arraigned on a charge of carrying a knife with the intent to use it unlawfully. Policeman Roby testified that a man com-plained to him last night that Mockabee had drawn a knife on him. I looked him up and and found an o penknife in his hip pocket," the officer said in concluding. "I just picked the knife up, and the officer was the first person I saw," Mockabee declared.

The court thought the charge had been made out, and imposed a tax of $250, with imprisonment on the farm for six months as the equivalent.

Sylvester Parker, colored, was adjudged guilty of a charge of having been engaged in disorderly conduct while near the corner of New Jersey avenue and M street southeast last night. He will spend fifteen days in the workhouse in default of a fine of $5 which was imposed. Edward Johnson, a young colored man, made his debut in the Police Court this morning, being presented to Judge Bundy by Policeman Dean of the harbor squad. It was alleged that Edward had been disorderly while in the vicinity of the steamboat wharves yesterday afternoon. When searched at the station house knife such as is used by sailors was found in the young man's possession, and an additional charge of carrying a concealed weapon was filed against him.

"I belong in Westmoreland county, Va., and came here on a schooner, and yester-day afternoon I had several drinks with a friend, and then I was arrested," Johnson told his honor. "What do you do with the knife?" Judge

Bundy asked. "Use it on the boat," Johnson replied. "Have you ever been arrested before?" he was asked.

"No policeman never touched me before yesterday, and I trust they won't have to do it again," he answered. Judge Bundy held that the charge of misconduct had been made out, and made an assessment of $3, with imprisonment for en days in default. The charge of carrying a concealed weapon was dismissed. Wouldn't Let Her Sleep on the Earth.

"This man came to my house in Hughes' court yesterday afternoon and told me that he wasn't going to let me sleep on the earth any more, and then I ran away, because I was afraid he might hurt me.'

Annie Contee, colored, testified after Robert Jackson, colored, pleaded not guilty to a charge of carrying a revolver.
"Do you know him?" his honor asked.
"Guess I do; he's my friend," Annie answered, "and I haven't been to work since Saturday because he was laying for me

Two colored women who were in the house when Jackson called yesterday told court that he had a revolver. Jackson denied that he had had any trou-ble with Annie or that he had a revolver in Judge Bundy decided that the evidence called for a conviction and imposed a fine of $50. Jackson will be deprived of his lib-The remaining cases were of the usual grind and were disposed of according to the evidence submitted.

WU OBJECT OF ATTACK.

Stones Thrown at Chinese Minister in Coal Regions.

A dispatch to the New York Sun from Binghamton, N. Y., yesterday says: Among his many strange experiences in this countyr, Minister Wu Ting-fang can number that of being attacked in a rapidly moving passenger train by unknown persons, presumably striking coal miners. Minister Wu had accepted an invitation to speak in this city at a meeting of workingmen and left Newark, N. J., last night under the escort of a labor leader of this city. For weeks his visit had been announced, so that at many stations crowds gathered on the platform to catch a glimpse of him. As he passed through the coal region he began asking questions about the big strike, and was listening attentively to the labor leaders when a heavy stone crashed through the window of his coach, showering glass around the head of the oriental diplomat. The stone was almost instantly followed by a larger one through another window and then the train was out of range. The curlous as to the custom of greeting guest in this manner. He was told it was probably the work of some of the strikers, who were opposed to a labor organization enter-taining a native of the celestial empire in

CHILDREN GIVEN A TREAT. Annual Entertainment at the German

Orphan Asylum. Over 800 people gathered at the German Orphan Asylum on Good Hope road, Anacostla, yesterday afternoon and evening to participate in the annual Labor day entertainment provided by the Ladies' Aid Society of the institution. It was a day of rare enjoyment for the children of the asylum, who, in addition to being visited by their friends, spent most of the time in outdoor games on the slopes adjacent to the buildings, afterward partaking of a generous repast, which was served in one of the long corridors of the main building. Prizes of cups, saucers, plates and pitchers were awarded to the juvenile contenders who proved victors, and in the possession of which much pride was taken by the little ones. Rev. Paul Menzel, pastor of Concordia Lutheran Church of this city, was in charge of this feature of the day's program, assisted by Superintendent Jacob Gerstenberg. The children sang under the direc-tion of Prof. Emil Mori of the city. Many persons prominent in German circles were in attendance and took the opportunity of inspecting the asylum. American flags hung from the buildings and served as decorations for the grounds. An orchestra, stationed in one of the halls, rendered a musical program, and in the course of the evening dancing was indulged in. A large number of the visitors preferred to remain outdoors under the trees and partake of refreshments, it being estimated that 500 persons were so engaged at one time. The tables at which supper was served in the main building were tastefully decorated

The following committees were in charge of the affair: Ladies' Aid Society, Mrs. Rosina Botsch, president; Mrs. Katharine Schaffer, Mrs. John Bartell, Mrs. Pauline Walther, Mrs. Mary Pottcher, Mrs. Rosie Kettler, Mrs. Mary Neuhouse, Mrs. Charles Rupperthouse, Mrs. Worch, Mrs. Sophie Artes, Mrs. Elhle, Mrs. Louise Kettler, Mrs. John Walter, Mrs. Schultz and Mrs.

John Schneider, Board of directors: J. F. Schneider, chairman: W. H. Verhoff, Charles Rotier, Karl Miller, Theodore Blitt and Leon Pullman. Frederick Imhoff, the president of the board of directors, was present and was much gratified at the success of the entertainment, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the institution.

PRESIDENT DENIES RUMOR.

Has Not Determined to Place Knox on Supreme Bench.

A dispatch from East Northfield, Mass., yesterday says The attention of the President having been called to the published statement that Attorney General Knox's name was being considered with the view of appointing him to a justiceship on the Supreme bench, to succeed Justice George Shiras, it can be said on the authority of the President himself that not only does he not contemplate such a move, but Justice Shiras has not resigned. The President classed all such statements as without the least foundation, and that they only come into his mind when he sees them in print.

The same published statement also credits him with having reached the conclusion to place the construction of the isthmian canal under the jurisdiction of the army, with Gen. Leonard Wood as chairman of the canal committee. The President like-wise is authority for the statement that he has no intention whatsoever of changing the civil nature of the committee.

Wills Filed for Probate.

The will of Mary A. W. Smith, dated August 13, 1901, was filed for probate today. After providing for the erection of a monument over her grave and that of her husband, the testator requests that $10 be paid to the Methodist Home of this city and $25 to the New York Avenue M. E. Church. One-half of the residue of the estate is devised to Clara Edmonston, and the remaining half is to be divided between George L. DeGant and Myrtle P. Probey. Abram F. Barker is named as executor.

By her will, dated July 5, 1902, and filed for probate today, Rose Knorr bequeaths $50 to her sister, Josephine J. Herfurth, and the residue of her estate to her brother, Albert H. Knorr. The brother is named

The story of a pleasant evening stroll of Rev. Jake Jones, colored, and a dusky damsel named Miss Lena Carter, together with the rude interruption by some jealous admirers of Miss Lena, was poured into Mayor Simpson's ears by the Rev. Jones himself at this morning's session of the police court. In the dock was William Davis, bold and defiant, who only looked and listened as the indignant complainant related the circumstances of the affair. Out walking yes' terday evening, Jones said, he and his companion were accosted by several colored men, of whom, it was alleged, Davis was the ringleader. They persisted in taking Miss Lena away from her escort, and he, taking discretion to be the better part of valor, fied from the scene. This morning he told the court that he had left his companion to the tender mercies of providence while he dashed off to sommon police assistance. For his part in the unseemly af-fair William Davis was required to pay $5. A fine of the same amount was imposed on E. W. HIS CRIME.

Evening Star Bureau, No. 701 King Street.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., September 2, 1902. The span of life, which the law of the state allows John Lomax, colored, in the city jail under sentence of death, is rapidly drawing to a close. Unless something unexpected develops within the next few days the negro will expiate his crime of criminal assault by death at Montross, WestmoreTand county, Tuesday next. At present there seems to be no reason for him to hope that the sentence will not be duly executed. Two weeks ago he was not without friends in Alexandria, those who were willing to take any reasonable and legitimate steps in his behalf. In fact, new counsel had been employed to look after his interests. But his confession of guilt in his cell Sunday a week ago, it is thought practically precluded the possibility of any success attending the efforts of his coun-

It is probable that Lomax will be taken away from this city the afternoon of Monday next and conveyed by steamer to Westmoreland county, reaching Montross the morning of the 9th Instant. He will be in the custody of Deputy Sheriff George A. Sandy of the county.

thereby made immune to that particular disease for the rest of his life. A Swiss physician has been examining the records of such diseases, and in the statistics at his disposal—which are very defective, as com-paratively few physicians take the trouble to report such observations to the medical journals—he finds no less than 528 persons who have had smallpox twice, nine who have had it three times and one had it seven times. For scarlet fever he finds 144 double and seven triple attacks. A hundred and three persons had two and three had seven attacks of measles; 205 had typhus twice, five thrice, one four times and even cholera shows twenty-nine by the Germans and Americans; the Britishers are certainly not wanted in Switzer-land, which is quite crowded enough and much nicer without them.
